1. BACKGROUND & COVERAGE

What does this Agreement govern?

- (a) This Agreement governs the basis on which GrainCorp supplies the Services to You.

What is covered by this Agreement?

- (b) This Agreement applies to the Services where the following has or is to occur:
 - (i) Receival;
 - (ii) Storage of Grain at a GrainCorp Storage;
 - (iii) Transfer (whether or not Your Interest in Stored Grain, the subject of the Transfer, was subject to Other GrainCorp Agreements); and
 - (iv) Outload.

What is not covered by this Agreement?

- (c) This Agreement does not apply to Port Terminal Services or Grower Warehousing Services.

When are you bound by this Agreement?

- (d) You are legally bound on the earlier of the Execution Date and the Commencement Date.
- (e) In the event that You do not execute and return this Agreement to GrainCorp,
 - (i) You will be deemed to have unconditionally accepted its terms on and from the Commencement Date; and
 - (ii) for the purposes of the PPSA, You will be deemed to have accepted its terms on and from the first date that GrainCorp provides You with the Services.

When does this Agreement end?

- (f) Unless terminated earlier in accordance with clause 13 of Part A, this Agreement ends on the Termination Date. In the event GrainCorp supplies the Services beyond the Termination Date, You will be deemed to have entered into the Next Season's Country Storage and Handling Agreement.
- (g) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, if You enter, or are deemed to have entered, into the Next Season's Country Storage and Handling Agreement or any other agreement that supersedes this Agreement (the Subsequent Agreements), GrainCorp may, in its sole discretion and without giving you any notice, elect to deem this Agreement to be a "master agreement" between You and GrainCorp which does not end on the Termination Date, so that for the purposes of the PPSA,:

- (i) all Subsequent Agreements will be subject to, and will be deemed to form part of, this Agreement; and
- (ii) GrainCorp may rely on any registration made on the PPSR with respect to this Agreement in relation to any Security Interests arising under any Subsequent Agreements.

Does this Agreement replace previous Storage and Handling Agreements?

- (h) Yes. On and from the date You become legally bound under clauses 1(d) and 1(e) above, this Agreement supersedes any prior agreement between You and GrainCorp relating to the Services.

2. STRUCTURE OF THIS AGREEMENT

What does this Agreement include?

This Agreement comprises the following:

- (i) General Details (and contents page);
- (ii) Part A: General Terms;
- (iii) Part B: Receival, Storage and Outloading;
- (iv) Part C: Grain Classification and Testing;
- (v) Part D: Management of Accounting Stock;
- (vi) Part E: Fees & Payment;
- (vii) Part F: Interpretation and Definitions;
- (viii) GrainCorp Transaction Documents; and
- (ix) If applicable, any agreed Variation Request or separate agreement for the provision of Export Direct Services.

3. RELATIONSHIP

What is Your relationship with GrainCorp?

The relationship between You and GrainCorp is one of customer and service provider. The Agreement shall not be construed as constituting an agency, partnership, trust or joint venture between You and GrainCorp or a right of tenancy, lease or licence of any GrainCorp Storages or any other storage facility or any land upon which a storage facility is located.

4. OBLIGATIONS

What are Your obligations?

- (a) You agree to comply with the terms of this Agreement.

What are GrainCorp's obligations?

- (b) In supplying the Services, GrainCorp agrees to comply with the terms of this Agreement and will use reasonable endeavours to provide and maintain all necessary plant, equipment and facilities and procure services necessary to perform its obligations under this Agreement.

5. WARRANTIES & ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

What do you acknowledge and agree to?

- (a) You acknowledge and agree that each set of terms comprising Parts A to F may include additional acknowledgements to which You are legally bound.

What do you represent and warrant?

- (b) You represent and warrant to GrainCorp that:
 - (i) You are fully entitled, without the consent of any third person, to exercise all of the rights under and do all of the things contemplated by this Agreement;
 - (ii) You acquire the Services for the purposes of a business carried on or engaged by You;
 - (iii) All information provided by You in relation to this Agreement (including the GrainCorp Transaction Documents) is complete, truthful and accurate; and
 - (iv) You will comply with all applicable laws, in exercising the rights and performing Your obligations under this Agreement.

What is not represented/warranted by GrainCorp?

- (c) GrainCorp does not represent or warrant (expressly or impliedly) that:
 - (i) It will supply Services to You for any minimum or maximum quantity or quality of Grain;
 - (ii) It will load a rail transport provider's wagons in accordance with the Wagon Loading Plan;
 - (iii) It will supply Services for all of Your requirements; or
 - (iv) Any information provided to You by its third parties under or in connection with this Agreement is complete or accurate, and to the fullest extent permitted by law, GrainCorp accepts no liability for any inaccuracies, errors, false or misleading representations or omissions.

6. INDEMNITIES & RELEASE

What indemnities do you give GrainCorp?

- (a) You indemnify, release and hold harmless GrainCorp, its employees, officers, agents and contractors from and against all Claims or Loss suffered by You or any third party arising from or as a result of or in connection with (directly or indirectly):
 - (i) The supply or non-supply of the Services;
 - (ii) Any third party Claim in relation to any Grain that becomes Stored Grain;
 - (iii) Cash Buyer Limits or Cash Prices;
 - (iv) The Outloading of Stored Grain by road and rail;
 - (v) The transportation of Grain by road and rail;
 - (vi) Any failure to pay Fees and any fees and charges under Other GrainCorp Agreements;
 - (vii) The supply and accuracy of Stock Information;
 - (viii) Any and all other breaches (including a breach of warranty), non-observance or non-performance of Your obligations under this Agreement and Your negligent acts or omissions.

To whom do the benefit of the indemnities and releases under 6(a) extend?

- (b) GrainCorp's officers, employees, agents and contractors each have the benefit of these indemnities and releases and to that extent, GrainCorp enters into this Agreement as agent and trustee on their behalf.

7. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

What are the exclusions of liability?

- (a) You agree:
 - (i) The only warranties provided by GrainCorp under or in connection with this Agreement are those expressly set out in this Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, and to the maximum extent permitted by law, GrainCorp excludes all conditions implied by law or statute including those under the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth);

- (ii) GrainCorp is not liable for any Claim or Loss arising from or in connection with the detection of defects and/or Contamination when the detection is at levels below 0.05% by weight, or for chemical residues in Grain detected at levels below 0.05mg/kg, regardless of whether the chemicals were applied as part of GrainCorp's pest control program, or any fumigation process, or were received from any other source;
- (iii) GrainCorp is not liable for any Claim or Loss associated with non-conformance to the Commodity Standards where the attribute does not form part of the original testing procedure or cannot be reasonably and practicably ascertained by GrainCorp on Receipt or that normally deteriorates in storage over time. This includes germination of malt barley, varietal purity (including GM varietal purity), free fatty acids, falling number, vitreous kernel in durum, the presence of objectionable or toxic substances, Contamination, chemical residues, the level of whole and split/chipped/broken Grain and loose seed coat and broken/shattered pods and other materials of pulses, or cracked and broken levels for maize Received, Stored and Outloaded; and
- (iv) GrainCorp will not be liable for any Claim or Loss arising from Outload to rail or road where the vehicle is short-loaded or where a wagon fails to meet the nominated capacity of individual wagons or taken together, an entire train as per the Wagon Loading Plan.

Is there a cap on GrainCorp's liability?

- (b) Yes. Other than where clause 7(c) applies, despite anything to the contrary contained in these terms and, where permissible by law, GrainCorp's total liability to You howsoever arising (including by way of breach of this Agreement or the negligent act or omission of GrainCorp) is capped at a total all-inclusive amount of $100,000 for any single incident or event or a series of related events.

What is the limitation on liability if a condition or implied warranty is permitted?

- (c) If pursuant to any law, GrainCorp is not permitted, or is held not to be permitted to exclude an implied condition or warranty, notwithstanding clause 7(b), in the event of any breach by GrainCorp of such an implied condition or warranty and despite anything contrary in this Agreement, GrainCorp's liability shall be limited, at its option, to the re-supply of the Services that are the subject of the relevant breach to You or the payment to You of the cost of supply of such Services.

8. AMENDMENT

Can You amend this Agreement?

- (a) Yes. The parties may amend this Agreement by written agreement, subject to clauses 8(b) and 9 of Part A.

How do You request an amendment?

- (b) You must complete a written Variation Request and serve it as a notice in accordance with clause 15(c). GrainCorp may, after review of the Variation Request, and in its discretion, accept or reject the terms of the Variation Request. If accepted, the Variation Request will be signed by GrainCorp and constitute a valid variation of this Agreement.

9. CHANGE IN LAW

What happens if there is a Change in Law that effects this Agreement?

Notwithstanding any other provision in this Agreement, if there is a Change in Law after the Commencement Date which results in a direct or indirect increase in GrainCorp's costs or adversely impacts the provision of the Services, GrainCorp may vary this Agreement providing You with 3 months' notice to the Revised Commencement Date of the varied agreement.

10. INSURANCE

Will GrainCorp insure Stored Grain?

- (a) Yes. During the Term, GrainCorp will maintain stock insurance covering any physical loss or damage to Stored Grain while in GrainCorp Storages.

What happens if GrainCorp makes a claim and has to determine fair market price?

- (b) If GrainCorp makes a claim under an insurance policy and is required to determine fair market price for the purposes of any shortfall liability, You irrevocably authorise GrainCorp to:
 - (i) Receive and give good discharge for all monies payable under the policy;

- (ii) Settle, adjust and compromise all Claims under the policy; and
- (iii) Determine, by agreement with the insurer, the time of loss;
- (c) You agree that You will not Claim against GrainCorp, nor contest or dispute any GrainCorp decision in relation to any action by GrainCorp in accordance with this Agreement unless GrainCorp acts in bad faith or fraudulently.

What insurance are You required to effect?

- (d) You must effect and maintain insurance cover that a prudent person in Your position would deem sufficient to guard against risks having regard to the terms of this Agreement.

11. SITE ACCESS

Can I inspect a GrainCorp Storage?

- (a) Yes. Subject to providing GrainCorp with reasonable notice, in writing, including the date, persons attending, the GrainCorp Storage to be inspected and the purpose of the visit. However, GrainCorp, in its discretion, reserves the right to refuse Your request.
- (b) When at the GrainCorp Storage, You (including all of Your employees, invitees, contractors and/or agents) must:
 - (i) Comply with all lawful and reasonable directions given by GrainCorp or on its behalf;
 - (ii) Comply with all applicable laws, signage, safety rules and access requirements; and
 - (iii) Not cause any risk of harm, damage, injury, hazard or contamination of Grain.

12. EVENTS OUTSIDE THE PARTIES' CONTROL

What are events outside the control of the parties?

- (a) Without limitation, the following are events which are beyond the reasonable control of the parties:
 - (i) Acts of God, fire, storm, lightning, floods, Severe Weather, Adverse Weather, earthquakes, landslide, pandemic, epidemic;
 - (ii) Acts of the public enemy, war, rebellion, insurrection, terrorist act, sabotage, internet denial of service attacks, national emergency;
 - (iii) Mechanical breakdown of plant and equipment associated with utility failures;

- (iv) Port block-out, Blockage, embargo, strike, lockout, labour disputes or disturbances, work stoppage or other labour hindrance (protected or unprotected industrial action) other than those caused or contributed to by the party affected or which solely affects that party; or
- (v) Any other similar cause beyond the reasonable control of the party concerned but does not include a lack of funds for any reason or any other inability to pay.

What must the parties do in the case of an event arising that is reasonably beyond their control?

- (b) If an event in clause 12(a) occurs and is relied upon by a party to excuse performance under this Agreement that party must:
 - (i) Give the other party written notice promptly together with specifying the facts and circumstances that are relied upon to assert the event is beyond its reasonable control and an estimate of the extent of the non-performance and delay; and
 - (ii) Take all steps to mitigate and end the event or the effects of the event as quickly as possible (but this does not require the settlement of industrial disputes or other claims or unreasonable terms); and
 - (iii) Resume performance under this Agreement as soon as reasonably practicable; or
 - (iv) If the subject event persists for more than thirty (30) continuous Calendar Days, either party may terminate this Agreement in accordance with clause 13(c)(vii) or 13(e)(ii).

Are the parties liable for events outside of their control?

- (c) No. Subject to a party's compliance with clause 12 (b), neither party is liable for failing to perform an obligation in whole or in part, or for not performing it on time (except an obligation to pay money) because of an event defined in clause 12(a) or to the extent that the event is beyond the party's reasonable control. GrainCorp is not liable to compensate You or any third party for any Claim or Loss sustained or damages suffered by You or a third party and arising from events beyond the reasonable control of GrainCorp, at their consequences.

13. DEFAULT & TERMINATION

What happens if You default under this Agreement?

- (a) In addition to GrainCorp's rights at law, in the event that You default under this Agreement, GrainCorp is entitled to do any of the following:
 - (i) In respect of a failure by You to pay a Fee, immediately exercise any of its rights pursuant to clause 5(a) of Part E; and
 - (ii) In respect of any other default (subject to clauses 13(b) of Part A and clause 14 of Part B), elect to pursue the relief under clause 5(a) of Part E.

Is a party required to give notice of a breach capable of remedy?

- (b) Yes, In the event that a party has breached this Agreement and that breach is capable of remedy, the other party must serve a notice on the party in breach which outlines the nature of the breach; and provides seven (7) Calendar Days' notice for the breaching party to remedy that breach.

Can GrainCorp terminate this Agreement?

- (c) Yes. GrainCorp is entitled to terminate this Agreement immediately upon written notice where:
 - (i) You fail to pay a Fee due and payable under this Agreement;
 - (ii) You breach an essential term of this Agreement in circumstances where that breach cannot or is not remedied as required under this Agreement;
 - (iii) You fail to follow a reasonable and lawful direction of GrainCorp given in connection with this Agreement;
 - (iv) You commit an act or omission which compromises the safety of a person performing Services under this Agreement or brings or intends to bring GrainCorp's name into disrepute;
 - (v) You are placed under some form of official administration, receivership or liquidation or in GrainCorp's opinion, You are unable to pay Your debts as and when they fall due; or
 - (vi) Where a notice has been served in accordance with clause 13(b) of Part A, and the breach has not been remedied to GrainCorp's satisfaction;
 - (vii) Where clause 12(b)(iv) of Part A applies.

When can You terminate this Agreement?

- (d) You can terminate this Agreement when GrainCorp:
 - (i) Breaches a term of this Agreement in circumstances where that breach cannot be remedied; or
 - (ii) Is placed under some form of official management due to its insolvency.
- (e) Upon fourteen (14) Calendar Days' written notice:
 - (i) Where a notice has been served in accordance with clause 13(b) of Part A, and the breach has not been remedied to Your satisfaction; or
 - (ii) Where clause 12(b)(iv) of Part A applies.

What are Your obligations on termination?

- (f) You must pay all Fees and Costs due and/or payable in connection with this Agreement not later than five (5) Business Days following the effective date of termination of this Agreement.
- (g) You must make all necessary arrangements for the immediate Transfer or Outload of Your Accounting Stock. Until such time as the Transfer or Outload occurs, You will continue to be liable to pay all Fees for Services performed or, in the event that the Next Season has commenced, the fees and charges under Next Season's Country Storage and Handling Agreement.

What rights survive termination?

- (h) Termination of this Agreement shall not prejudice any rights of either party which accrue prior to the effective date of termination or the provisions which are expressed to survive termination of this Agreement, including those in 13(g) above.

14. DISPUTES

What do the parties do if the dispute relates to Out of Specification Grain?

- (a) If a dispute arises between the parties which is solely limited to Out of Specification Grain, the parties must comply with clause 8 of Part C.

What do the parties do for all other disputes?

- (b) Subject to clause 14(c), for all other disputes except for those relating clause 13(a)(i) of Part A and clause 7(l) of Part B:
 - (i) The disputing party must give the other party written notice of the dispute;

- (ii) Within seven (7) Calendar Days following receipt of that notification, the parties must exchange all relevant information to the dispute and refer the matter for discussion to each party's Authorised Representative;
- (iii) If after that discussion, the dispute is unresolved, the parties must within seven (7) Calendar Days refer the dispute to a mutually agreed dispute resolver;
- (iv) If the parties are unable to agree on a dispute resolver, they must refer the dispute to the Disputes Manager of ADC and request the appointment of a dispute resolver;
- (v) Within two (2) Months of the appointment of the dispute resolver, the parties must, in good faith, attempt to resolve the dispute; and
- (vi) If the dispute remains unresolved within two (2) months of the receipt of the notice of dispute, the parties are at liberty to commence Court proceedings or any other action.

Do any other rules or standards apply to disputes?

- (c) No. The parties acknowledge and agree that no other dispute procedure (including GTA dispute resolution and/or arbitration processes and other similar procedures) other than those set out in this clause 14 apply to disputes arising out of or in connection with this Agreement.

15. MISCELLANEOUS

What is the law/jurisdiction governing this Agreement?

- (a) This Agreement is governed by and shall be construed in accordance with the laws of New South Wales and the parties submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of New South Wales.

What if an obligation under this Agreement contravenes a law?

- (b) GrainCorp is not required to perform any obligation under this Agreement if, in GrainCorp's opinion, it would contravene or might contravene any law.

How are notices provided?

- (c) Notices to be given by a party under these terms must be:
 - (i) In writing; or
 - (ii) Directed to the other party's address as set out in the General Details or as otherwise notified; or

- (iii) Left or sent by pre-paid registered post, hand delivered, facsimiled or emailed to that address, and will be deemed served:
 - (A) In the case of hand delivery, on the Calendar Day of delivery; or
 - (B) In the case of posting by ordinary post, three (3) Calendar Days after the date of posting; or
 - (C) In the case of facsimile, when the sender's facsimile system generates successful transmission; or
 - (D) In the case of email, at the time of sending by the party.

Are Your telephone conversations with GrainCorp recorded and/or monitored?

- (d) Yes. You agree and acknowledge that any telephone conversation You have with any of GrainCorp's (or its Related Entities) officers, employees, contractors or agents may be digitally recorded and/or monitored in accordance with the Privacy Act 1998 (Cth).
- (e) You also agree and acknowledge that GrainCorp or its Related Entities may use any information gained by reason of the said recording and/or monitoring in any legal, ADR, regulatory or court proceedings relating to any dispute under this Agreement, or any contract for the sale/purchase of Grain or other arrangement between You and GrainCorp including any Other GrainCorp Agreement.

How can a party exercise its rights under this Agreement?

- (f) A party may exercise a right, power or remedy at its discretion, separately or concurrently with another right, power or remedy. A single or partial exercise of a right, power or remedy by a party does not prevent a further exercise of that right or an exercise of any other right, power or remedy. Failure by a party to exercise or delay in exercising a right, power or remedy does not prevent its exercise.

Are the remedies cumulative?

- (g) Yes. The rights, powers and remedies provided in this Agreement are cumulative with and not exclusive of the rights, powers or remedies provided by law independently of this Agreement.

Can this Agreement be assigned?

- (h) Yes, this Agreement may be assigned or novated by a party subject to the other party's written consent, not to be unreasonably withheld.

Application and use of information under the Privacy Act 1998 (Cth)

- (i) GrainCorp may collect, hold, access and use information pursuant to this Agreement:
 - (i) For any purpose required or permitted by any governmental department or regulator, or as required by any law or this Agreement;
 - (ii) In order to maintain stock records on Your behalf;
 - (iii) For the purposes of GrainCorp's provision of products, the Services and other services;
 - (iv) For disclosure to GrainCorp's Related Bodies Corporate and/or CLEAR for the purposes of marketing other products and services to You;
 - (v) For disclosure by GrainCorp to any party for the purpose of enforcing any rights that party may have in connection with the Grain or commodity or variety.

Have You had the opportunity to obtain legal advice?

- (j) Each party agrees that before entering into this Agreement, it has had a reasonable opportunity to obtain independent legal advice in respect of the contents and legal effect of this Agreement. Each party acknowledges and agrees that it pays its own legal and other costs and expenses of negotiating, preparing, executing and performing its obligations under this Agreement.

Is this Agreement the entire understanding of the arrangement between You and GrainCorp?

- (k) Yes. This Agreement contains the entire understanding between the parties in respect of the subject matter of the Agreement. All previous negotiations, understandings, representations, warranties, memoranda or commitments concerning the subject matter of this Agreement are merged and superseded by this Agreement and are of no effect.

Does GrainCorp have a right of audit?

- (l) Yes. You acknowledge and agree that GrainCorp, at its cost, has a right of audit and may exercise that right for the purposes of ensuring and/or verifying Your compliance with Your obligations under this Agreement.

How does GrainCorp exercise its right of audit?

- (m) GrainCorp may exercise its right of audit by giving You 14 Calendar Days' written notice of its intention to do so.

Can GrainCorp appoint a third party to exercise its right of audit?

- (n) Yes. In GrainCorp's discretion, it may appoint a suitably qualified and experienced third party, such as an accountant or auditor, to act on its behalf.

What records must You make available?

- (o) You must make available to GrainCorp all Business Records in your custody, possession or control that are relevant to verifying Your compliance with Your obligations under this Agreement.

Are You required to provide reasonable assistance?

- (p) Yes. You must use reasonable endeavours to assist GrainCorp to exercise its right of audit under this Agreement, including permitting its representatives full access to all relevant Business Records, answering all reasonable questions regarding Your compliance with this Agreement and permitting copies of relevant Business Records to be undertaken.

What limits are placed on the use of Your Business Records?

- (q) GrainCorp undertakes to You that the information contained in all Business Records obtained by exercising its right of audit, will only be used for the sole purpose of ensuring and/or verifying Your compliance with Your obligations under this Agreement and will be kept securely and on a strictly confidential basis and will not be disclosed to any third party (save for any accountant or auditor acting on GrainCorp's behalf) without your written consent.

- (r) You acknowledge and agree that GrainCorp may retain and use Your Business Records for the purposes of commencing and prosecuting court proceedings for any breach by You of Your obligations under this Agreement.

Does GrainCorp's right of audit survive termination of this Agreement?

- (s) Yes. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the parties' rights, obligations and undertakings under clauses 15(l) to (r) inclusive survive termination of this Agreement.

1. BACKGROUND & COVERAGE

What are these terms about?

- (a) These terms contain the agreement between You and GrainCorp in respect of:
 - (i) Receival and Storage of Grain at GrainCorp Storages;
 - (ii) The Outload of Stored Grain at GrainCorp Storages;
 - (iii) Hours of operation for GrainCorp Storages; and
 - (iv) Finalisation of Your Interest.

2. RECEIVAL & STORAGE OF GRAIN

What are Your obligations on Receival?

- (a) You must comply with the terms and conditions set out on the Receival Docket as GrainCorp is relying upon Your declarations when Grain is Received and becomes Stored Grain.

What are GrainCorp's obligations on Receival?

- (b) GrainCorp will use reasonable endeavours to Receive Your Grain and in its discretion, determine Grain and Grade in accordance with the Commodity Standards.

What are GrainCorp's storage obligations?

- (c) GrainCorp will use reasonable endeavours to safely store Stored Grain during the Term.
- (d) GrainCorp, in its discretion, may co-mingle or segregate Stored Grain.

3. REQUEST FOR OUTLOAD

Are You required to lodge an Order to Outload and a Forecast of Intention to Outload together?

- (a) Yes. The purpose of the requirement to simultaneously lodge an Order to Outload and the Forecast of Intention to Outload in accordance with the minimum advanced notice periods, is to provide GrainCorp Supply Chain Planning with seven (7) Calendar Days' notice of Your rolling 2-week execution requirements each Monday (or the Business Day prior in the event Monday is a Public Holiday), for planning purposes.

How do You request Outload?

- (b) In order to request Outload for non-export/domestic purposes, You are required to follow the procedure in clauses 3(d) to 3(f) below.
- (c) In order to request Outload for export purposes, You are required to follow the procedure in clauses 3(m) to 3(n) below.

How do You request Outload for Non-Export purposes?

- (d) To request Outload for non-export/domestic purposes You must before 5:00pm AEST each Monday (or the Business Day prior in the event Monday is a Public Holiday) provide GrainCorp Supply Chain Planning with both:
 - (i) An Order to Outload, covering the first week; and
 - (ii) A Forecast of Intention to Outload, covering the second week, in compliance with the minimum notice periods set out in clause 3(e) and the required information in clauses 3(f).

What notice must You give GrainCorp?

- (e) Subject to clause 6(f)(i) of Part C, 1 week's notice is required for an Order to Outload and Forecast of intention to Outload lodged together on a Monday (or the Business Day prior in the event Monday is a Public Holiday).

What information must You include?

- (f) Your Order to Outload must contain (and the Forecast of Intention to Outload may contain) the following information (for the period Monday to Sunday inclusive during which execution is to take place):
 - (i) All delivery destination(s);
 - (ii) Transport arrangements (road or rail);
 - (iii) Grain/Grade;
 - (iv) Tonnage (by Calendar Day);
 - (v) GrainCorp Storage where Your Accounting Stock is held (the 'Origination Site'); and
 - (vi) Any other information deemed necessary.

What if Your Accounting Stock is not available at the Origination Site?

- (g) To supply Stored Grain against Your Order to Outload, GrainCorp may in its discretion, nominate an alternative GrainCorp Storage for Outload other than the Origination Site (called the 'Outload Site') and amend Your Order to Outload accordingly.

- (h) In the event GrainCorp exercises its discretion under 3(g) above, GrainCorp will:
- (i) Use reasonable endeavours to ensure:
 - (A) The Grade of Stored Grain at the Outload Site is the same Grade as Your Accounting Stock at the Origination Site; and
 - (B) The Outload Site has rail loading capability (if Origination Site had rail loading capability); or
 - (ii) Stock Swap a Tonnage of the Grain and Grade to meet Your Order to Outload from the Origination Site to the Outload Site; and
 - (iii) Notify You of the Stock Swap and associated payments in accordance with clause 4 below, so the Order to Outload can be executed in accordance with clause 5 below.

What options do You have if Your proposed execution days/Grades are not available?

- (i) In circumstances where the proposed execution day(s) and/or Grades are, in GrainCorp's discretion, not available at the Origination Site or Outload Site, GrainCorp will consult with You and GrainCorp may propose an alternative execution day(s) and/or propose Re-Grading of Your Accounting Stock.

When can GrainCorp reject Your Order to Outload?

- (j) In its discretion, GrainCorp can reject Your Order to Outload where:
 - (i) You do not comply with clauses 3(d), 3(e) or 3(f); or
 - (ii) You have insufficient Accounting Stock, by Grain and Grade, at the Origination Site.

When will Your Order to Outload be confirmed?

- (k) GrainCorp Supply Chain Planning will use reasonable endeavours to confirm Your Order for Outload, and Stock Swap (if applicable), by 5:00 pm AEST on the Wednesday following lodgement of Your Order to Outload (or Thursday if Monday is public holiday).

When must You complete a Movement Request?

- (l) Following receipt of GrainCorp's confirmation in 3(k) above, You must complete a Movement Request within two (2) Business Days following GrainCorp's confirmation in clause 3(k) above, unless You withdraw/cancel the Order to Outload.

How do You request Outload for Export Purposes?

- (m) Where you are not a party to an agreement for Export Direct Services, You must lodge a CAP which complies with clause 3(n) below.

What are the minimum requirements for a CAP?

- (n) For a CAP to be compliant and accepted by GrainCorp for processing, the following minimum requirements apply:
 - (i) You must submit by email to GrainCorp Supply Chain Planning Your completed CAP no later than 28 Calendar Days before the applicable ALD;
 - (ii) Information You include in the CAP must be complete and match information entered into the GrainCorp Shipping Workflow;
 - (iii) If more than one parcel is to be shipped on a Cargo Nomination Application (CNA), You must allocate the different Grades and Tonnages to individual parcels;
 - (iv) You must include the required details of each and all transport providers for each Grade requested from each GrainCorp Storage and Non-GrainCorp Storage;
 - (v) You must include the estimated GAP date;
 - (vi) You must have sufficient Accounting Stock of the requested Grain and Grades to meet requested Tonnages at each site/GrainCorp Storage;
 - (vii) Must account for the Shrink factor of 0.3% applicable to Port Terminal Outloading;
 - (viii) GrainCorp does not under any circumstances permit Grower Returns to comprise any portion of a CAP; and
 - (ix) The rail and road parcels in a CAP must meet the compliant parcel sizes defined in clause 6 of these terms.

What happens if Your CAP is non-compliant?

- (o) A CAP that does not comply with clauses 3(n) will be rejected. If this occurs, You will be notified within two (2) Business Days of the date of lodgment of the CAP.

4. STOCK SWAPS

What is a Stock Swap?

- (a) A Stock Swap occurs when GrainCorp, in its discretion, notionally places Your Accounting Stock at a GrainCorp Storage other than the Origination Site for purposes of Outload.

Does GrainCorp undertake a quality reconciliation?

- (b) No. Subject to clause 4(c) no quality reconciliation is applicable to a Stock Swap.
- (c) Where Your Accounting Stock comprises canola, a quality differential for the difference in the average oil and impurities quality between the Origination and Outload Sites will be determined under clause 4(d) and reconciled and payable under clause 4(i).

How is the quality differential for canola determined?

- (d) The quality differential (if applicable), being either a loss or gain, is determined in GrainCorp's discretion having regard to the applicable Commodity Standard.

How does GrainCorp determine the Freight Differential?

- (e) Any Freight Differential will be determined in accordance with the 'GNC Swap Differentials' (published on the GrainCorp Website), which is then multiplied by the Tonnage of Your Accounting Stock swapped.

How is a Freight Differential and quality differential for canola reconciled in a Stock Swap?

- (f) Where a Freight Differential occurs:
 - (i) A positive differential is payable by GrainCorp to You; or
 - (ii) A negative differential is payable by You to GrainCorp.
- (g) Where a quality differential for canola occurs:
 - (i) A loss is payable by GrainCorp to You; and
 - (ii) A gain is payable by You to GrainCorp.

Will You be notified of a Stock Swap?

- (h) Yes. You will be notified of a Stock Swap and any consequential payment (by or to You) prior to execution of an approved Order to Outload.

How are payments invoiced?

- (i) Payments associated with Freight Differentials and/or quality differentials for canola due to a Stock

Swap will be aggregated and netted off each Month and thereafter invoiced / credited.

5. OUTLOAD

When will GrainCorp make arrangements to Outload?

- (a) GrainCorp will make necessary arrangements to Outload when it is satisfied You have complied with clauses 3(n), 5(b) and/or 5(c) and any other terms set out in the Movement Request.

What specific requirements apply for Outload by road?

- (b) With respect to Outload by road you must ensure the road transport provider advises GrainCorp Supply Chain Planning of vehicle registration details in a manner that complies with the booking and Truck Time Slotting requirements on the Movement Request. Such details are to be provided no later than 5:00pm AEST on the Business Day prior to the date of confirmed execution under the approved Order to Outload, or in the event that You or the freight provider uses CropConnect to create the Booking Order, no later than 6:00am AEST on the first Business Day of execution under the approved Order to Outload, will apply.

What specific requirements apply for Outload by rail?

- (c) With respect to Outload by rail, You must ensure that GrainCorp Supply Chain Planning is advised of wagon details, dimensions and capacities no later than 5:00pm AEST, three (3) Business Days prior to the date of intended execution under an approved Order for Outload.

When does Outload actually occur?

- (d) Outload occurs at the point when Stored Grain is placed in a road vehicle or rail wagon.

When are You required to Outload?

- (e) On receipt by GrainCorp of Your Movement Request.

What happens if You cannot or fail to Outload?

- (f) If You do not execute a Movement Request, You may, subject to GrainCorp's discretion, either:
 - (ii) Store the Grain at the Outload Site, subject to any payment under 4(i); or
 - (iii) Reverse any Stock Swap in accordance with clause 4 of Part B.

What happens if You, or any transport provider acting on Your behalf, miss Your Truck Time Slot?

(g) If You, or any transport provider acting on Your behalf, fail to arrive for a Truck Time Slot or fail to notify GrainCorp of the cancellation of a Truck Time Slot by 5:00pm the day prior to Your Truck Time Slot, You will incur a cancellation fee of $75 per missed Truck Time Slot.

When is GrainCorp not obliged to Outload or Stock Swap?

(h) GrainCorp is not obliged to Outload or Stock Swap if, in GrainCorp’s discretion, any of the following circumstances apply to Stored Grain, You or the relevant Outload Site:

- (i) Unavailability of rail or road transportation;
- (ii) Fumigation and/or insect pest infestation;
- (iii) Pesticide withholding periods;
- (iv) Unacceptable risks to health and safety of persons;
- (v) Maintenance or repair work;
- (vi) Adverse weather conditions;
- (vii) Unserviceable, unsafe or unavailable plant or equipment;
- (viii) Contamination;
- (ix) Where quality parameters of the applicable Commodity Standard are not met;
- (x) Harvest receival activities or preparation for harvest receival; or
- (xi) Any outstanding Fees.

Can Outload be cancelled, suspended or refused?

- (i) Yes. Where the DAWR or an Authorised Officer or GrainCorp (acting reasonably) determines that Your selected mode of transport is not clean or fit for loading or carriage of Grain, GrainCorp may in its sole and absolute discretion, cancel, suspend or refuse to provide Outloading.
- (j) In such circumstances, You acknowledge and agree that GrainCorp will not be liable for any delay, Claim or Loss by You or any third party Claim and You will indemnify GrainCorp for any such Claims or Loss.

6. COMPLIANT PARCEL SIZES

What are the compliant parcel sizes for non-export purposes?

(a) For Outload for non-export or domestic purposes, the following minimum parcel requirements per GrainCorp Storage will apply:

Rail Queensland	Wheat, 1,767 Tonnes Non-wheat 1,676 Tonnes
Rail NSW & Victoria	Minimum 500 Tonnes per Grade as part of a full train consignment
Road All States	No Minimum applicable

What are the compliant parcel sizes for export purposes?

(b) For Outload for export purposes, You must present to GrainCorp for approval a CAP to which the following minimum parcel requirements per GrainCorp Storage will apply:

Rail Queensland	Wheat (single grade) 1,767 Tonnes Non-wheat (single grade) 1,676 Tonnes
Rail For loading ex Mount McLaren	Wheat 1,953 Tonnes Non-wheat 1,848 Tonnes
Rail NSW & Victoria	Minimum 500 Tonnes per Grade as part of a full train consignment
Road All States	No Minimum applicable

7. TRANSPORT PROVIDER REQUIREMENTS

Is GrainCorp responsible for transportation?

(a) No. Without limiting any other provision of this Agreement, GrainCorp is not responsible for the cleanliness, fitness for loading or carriage of Stored Grain for any mode of transportation nominated by You.

What are the requirements for road transport providers?

- (b) You acknowledge and agree that if You require Reveal or Outload from a GrainCorp Storage by road transport:
 - (i) It is Your obligation to ensure that road transport providers/vehicle operators engaged by You:
 - (A) Comply with all laws, including those in respect of safety, the environment, carriage of goods and chain of responsibility, and are conversant with GrainCorp’s safety procedures and have undergone

- GrainCorp's site induction program prior to entering a GrainCorp Storage; and
- (B) Are advised that they must not, and thereafter do not request, permit or allow GrainCorp employees, agents or contractors to access or climb on vehicles for any purpose to assist with connecting or disconnecting trailers or discharging loads; and
 - (C) Vehicles presented are clean, safe, fit for purpose, registered, insured and operated by licensed and/or suitably experienced, trained, qualified and physically capable persons, prior to entering and while upon a GrainCorp Storage;
 - (D) Are equipped with and shall wear PPE while at a GrainCorp Storage or Port Terminal;
 - (E) Provide motor vehicle registration numbers of all road transport vehicles used to deliver Grain or Outload Stored Grain at GrainCorp Storages are provided to GrainCorp; and
 - (F) On request by GrainCorp, provide to GrainCorp, information comprising their personnel's policies and procedures in relation to its driver fatigue management obligations;
- (c) GrainCorp will not allow or permit any vehicle to be loaded beyond its Mass Limit for the relevant vehicle configuration, or other appropriate limit applied under a scheme recognised by the relevant State or Commonwealth authority for the management of road vehicle Mass Limits; and
 - (d) Should a vehicle be loaded beyond its Mass Limit, GrainCorp will not be liable for any related delay or any Claim or Loss by You or any third party and You will indemnify GrainCorp for any such Claims or Loss.

What are the requirements for an Order to Outload by rail?

- (e) At the time of submitting an Order to Outload to GrainCorp Supply Chain Planning, You must:
 - (A) Hold Accounting Stock at the GrainCorp Storage(s) for proposed Outload for each Grade that is greater than or equal to the Tonnage specified on the Order to Outload.
 - (B) Outload the whole train from a GrainCorp Storage(s). GrainCorp will not accept an Order to Outload for a train that will be partly loaded from a GrainCorp Storage(s) and non-GrainCorp Storage.

- (f) An Order to Outload must be prepared and submitted by You in accordance with the process outlined in Part B, Clause 3.

What are the requirements for rail transport providers?

- (g) On Receival and Outload from Your rail transport provider, You must ensure/procure it:
 - (i) Has all approvals, licences and authorisations required to operate rail and related services;
 - (ii) Has an interface agreement and service level agreements in place with GrainCorp (as required by GrainCorp and/or rail regulators) that:
 - (A) Demonstrates adequate systems to provide the necessary rail and related services to the Customer in a timely, safe and professional manner; and
 - (B) Meets GrainCorp's rail loading or unloading requirements (as advised from time to time) for the GrainCorp Storage and Port Terminal.
 - (iii) Submits a Wagon Loading Plan for approval by GrainCorp prior to the commencement of loading, which includes:
 - (A) The legal weight limits or loads of each wagon type presented for loading; and
 - (B) Instructions for the correct method of loading wagons to avoid overloading.
 - (iv) Submit a request for Validation of Order to Outload to GrainCorp by no later than 12:00 noon AEST on the Business Day Prior to the date of execution (or the Business Day prior in the event Monday is a Public Holiday).
 - (v) You communicate any deviations from the validated Order to Outload once received, including rail transport delays, via written notification to GrainCorp Supply Chain Planning as soon as any changes to schedule become known.
 - (vi) Presents for loading, rail wagons that are:
 - (A) Clean and empty of any Grain residue and/or Contaminants, free from defects, well maintained, rail and carriage worthy;

and

- (B) In all respects, serviceable and have operable top and bottom door opening/closing mechanisms which do not require GrainCorp's employees, agents and contractors to climb onto the wagon or manually open or close wagon doors.

- (vii) Secures the bottom door opening/closing mechanism of all rail wagons during Receipt, Outloading and shunting operations.

- (h) GrainCorp will not load or unload rail wagons that are defective or do not meet the above requirements under Part B clause 7(g).
- (i) If bottom doors of a rail wagon are not adequately secured in accordance with clause 7(g)(vii) of this Part B leading to Grain spillage, You will be liable to GrainCorp for any Costs incurred by GrainCorp arising from the Grain spillage including, but not limited to, the cost of any unrecoverable Grain and clean-up costs.

Is GrainCorp liable for conduct of Your rail transport provider?

- (j) No. You bear all liability for the actions and/or omissions of Your rail transport provider or the performance of the rail network operator or related services. You acknowledge and agree that GrainCorp will not be liable under this Agreement or in law for any Claim or Loss by You or any third party, and You will indemnify GrainCorp for any and all such Claims or Loss.

Is GrainCorp liable for the cost of Your rail provider?

- (k) No. You acknowledge and agree that GrainCorp shall pass through to You any and all fees (howsoever described) applied by rail network owners or operators for access to, or use of, certain yards and siding or administrative fees imposed by rail network owners or operators for the repair, maintenance or upgrading of rail infrastructure.

What is excluded in Outload to rail wagons?

- (l) Unless advised to the contrary by GrainCorp, the Outload into rail wagons by GrainCorp does not include:
 - (A) The movement or shunting of rail wagons;
 - (B) The cleaning of rail wagons;

- (C) The repair of rail wagons; or
- (D) The opening and closing of wagon lids/hatches and discharge doors.

What happens if Your rail transportation is not clean or fit for loading?

- (m) Where DAWR or an Authorised Officer or GrainCorp, in its discretion, determines that Your selected mode of transport is not clean or fit for loading or carriage of Grain, GrainCorp may cancel, suspend or refuse Outload.

What documentation and weight requirements apply?

- (n) You acknowledge and agree that for all the following applies:

- (i) For rail movements from GrainCorp Storages to a Port Terminal, GrainCorp's rail weighbridges (where installed) or a weighing device will be used to determine final weights;

- (ii) For rail movements from GrainCorp Storages to a Third-Party Port Terminal or other destination, final weights must be verified by GrainCorp. To that end, You must procure the Third-Party Port Terminal or the owner/operator at the other destination consent before lodging an Order for Outload/CAP covering:

- (A) The provision of documentary evidence to GrainCorp that verifies the weighbridge's (where installed) or a weighing device's certification and compliance with applicable State and/or Federal laws, and

- (B) The provision of documentary evidence to GrainCorp verifying the final weights at the Third-Party Port Terminal or other destination no later than two (2) Business Days after all relevant rail deliveries.

- (iii) You acknowledge that GrainCorp has the right to refuse Your request for Outload by rail if You cannot satisfy compliance with 7(q)(ii) or, in its discretion and at its election, do any of the following:

- (A) Use GrainCorp controlled weighbridges (where installed) or a weighing devices to determine final weights;

- (B) Exercise its right to dispute weights declared by You (or where You fail to declare weights) and in doing so, substitute average assessed weights in lieu thereof to determine final weights and shall adjust the Your Accounting Stock accordingly.

8. HOURS OF OPERATION

What are GrainCorp's normal hours of operation?

- (a) Subject to 8(b) below, Receival and Outload are only available to You during the Business Hours on Business Days.

Can You request After Hours Services?

- (b) Yes. Any request for Receival or Outload After Hours must be in writing and given to GrainCorp Supply Chain Planning no later than 12:00 noon AEST:
- (i) Three (3) Business Days prior to a public holiday in the relevant area; or
 - (ii) Two (2) Business Days prior to a Calendar Day.
- (c) Fees for Receival or Outload will be determined in accordance with Part E or by agreement.
- (d) GrainCorp may, in its discretion, either accept or reject Your request under clause 8(b) and shall advise You of its decision on the same Business Day as the request is received.

9. FINALISATION OF INTEREST

How does the finalisation of Your Interest occur?

- (a) If after deduction of Shrink, the actual Outload Tonnage is less than Your Accounting Stock, GrainCorp will in its discretion, either:
- (i) Provide sufficient additional Grain of the same variety and Grade to ensure the net shortfall is equivalent to the Your Accounting Stock Tonnage; or
 - (ii) Pay to You an amount by way of compensation (in full and final settlement) for the net shortfall calculated by taking into account fair market price for Grain of the relevant variety and Grade for the applicable Season at the last Outload date.

Is GrainCorp excluded from liability?

- (b) Yes. You agree that GrainCorp is not liable for any Claim or Loss in circumstances where GrainCorp complies with clause 9(a) and You or any third party will indemnify GrainCorp for any and all such Claims or Loss.

1. BACKGROUND & COVERAGE

What are these terms about?

These terms contain the agreement between You and GrainCorp in respect of:

- (i) Location, time, methods and standards of testing;
- (ii) Sampling services;
- (iii) Use of pesticides and fumigants;
- (iv) Grain classification; and
- (v) Out of Specification Grain.

2. ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

What do You acknowledge and agree?

You acknowledge and agree the following:

- (i) In GrainCorp’s discretion, it may blend or average the protein, moisture and or screenings of Stored Grain to within 0.3% of the minimum protein and maximum moisture, 1% of the maximum screenings and/or 2kg/HI test weight of the applicable Commodity Standard on Outload of up to two (2) road trucks on any one (1) Business Day at each GrainCorp Storage;
- (ii) On Receival GrainCorp is unable to test for toxic or other chemical residues, varietal purity, GM or Contamination;
- (ii) GrainCorp does not warrant complete freedom from Grain defects and Contaminants listed with a Nil tolerance in the Commodity Standards;
- (iv) Germination testing of barley and free fatty acid testing of oilseeds will only be conducted during non-harvest periods at GrainCorp’s discretion;
- (v) Testing for GM canola will occur on composite harvest samples at GrainCorp approved laboratories;
- (vi) If a GM presence is detected above the tolerance specified for a Grade of canola, GrainCorp will consult with You about the appropriate method of Outload;
- (vii) GrainCorp can only review the hygiene history of Stored Grain at GrainCorp Storages; and
- (viii) Information on applicable Receival Dockets or Harvest Running Samples will be used to determine the average quality and/or quantity of Stored Grain at a GrainCorp Storage, attributed to a specific Customer/Grower.

3. LOCATION & TIME OF TESTING

When does testing take place?

Grain/Stored Grain is tested on Receival/Outload respectively and any other times at GrainCorp’s discretion.

4. TESTING METHODS & STANDARDS

What testing techniques and standards apply?

(a) The following testing methods and standards apply:

- (i) For segregation and Grade classification purposes, GrainCorp may:
 - (A) Use instruments that comply with the National Measurement Act (1960) and National Measurement Regulations (1999); or
 - (B) Use other methods and materials prescribed by the Commodity Standards.
- (ii) For testing at the time of Receival of Grain comprising Wheat and barley, GrainCorp may:
 - (A) Use falling number testing; and/or
 - (B) Use other methods and systems determined at GrainCorp’s discretion.
- (iii) For testing at the time of Receival of durum, GrainCorp may:
 - (A) Use a digital analyser to determine vitreous kernel; and/or
 - (B) Use other methods and systems determined at GrainCorp’s discretion.

5. SAMPLE SERVICES

What data and samples can be requested?

- (a) GrainCorp will provide You with harvest quality data applicable to Your Accounting Stock.
- (b) GrainCorp may provide You with samples up to 5kg per Grade/Port Zone from those Port Zones where Your Accounting Stock exceeds 10,000 Tonnes.

Can You request additional samples?

- (c) Yes. Upon request, additional tests and samples can be provided on a Grade of Your Accounting Stock subject to the following conditions:

- (i) GrainCorp agrees to conduct additional tests and provide samples; and
- (ii) In the event You require those tests during a harvest, You supply a list of requirements to GrainCorp Technical Services by no later than 30 September in the Current Season; and
- (iii) Payment of Fees as per clause 5(d) below.

Do additional samples incur extra Fees?

- (d) Yes. Additional samples may be provided to You at a 'site by grade' basis at a cost of $150.00 per additional sample and $53.50 per kg of the additional sample (plus courier Costs as per clause 5(f)); or
- (e) Where samples were not compiled during harvest, or have been requested less than four (4) weeks before harvest commences, a Fee in addition to clause 5(d) above will be payable as determined by GrainCorp in its discretion (plus courier Costs as per clause 5(f)) and notified to You; and
- (f) Where a consignment note and account number is supplied, at Your cost GrainCorp will dispatch samples using Your nominated courier. Alternatively, You can arrange for Your preferred courier to collect samples from GrainCorp.

How will additional samples be labelled?

- (g) Additional samples will be labelled with details including (where applicable) type, Port Zone, GrainCorp Storage, variety, Grade, Season and date collected unless otherwise advised.

6. USE OF PESTICIDES & FUMIGANTS

Does GrainCorp treat Stored Grain?

- (a) Yes. GrainCorp will at its discretion treat or disinfect Stored Grain with fumigants or pesticides in accordance with applicable laws.

Can You request details of the treatments used?

- (b) Yes. Upon Your written request GrainCorp will provide details of fumigants and pesticides used on Stored Grain.

Can You request certification?

- (c) Yes. Upon Your written request, and subject to clause 6(d), GrainCorp in its discretion will supply fumigation or other certificates specified by You.

- (d) GrainCorp is not liable to You for any Claims or Loss associated with the supply under Part C clause 6(c) for certification that has not been agreed between You and GrainCorp prior to a CAP or Movement Request.

What happens with Pesticide Residue Free Grain and Pesticide Residue Restricted Grain?

- (e) In respect of Pesticide Residue Free Grain and Pesticide Residue Restricted Grain on Receival, GrainCorp:
 - (i) does not routinely test for the presence of prior treatments; and
 - (ii) is not liable to You or any third party for any Claim or Loss associated with:
 - (A) Prior treatments or Contamination from storage, handling or transport equipment; or
 - (B) Other bulk handling companies, private storage or any other source.
- (f) In respect of Pesticide Residue Free Grain and Pesticide Residue Restricted Grain on Outload:
 - (i) Any Order to Outload requires a minimum of four (4) weeks' notice to GrainCorp;
 - (ii) GrainCorp does not guarantee Pesticide Residue Free Grain or Pesticide Residue Restricted Grain nor does it accept any liability for the same failing to meet Pesticide Residue Free requirements;
 - (iii) Pesticide Residue Free and Pesticide Residue Restricted requests must be stated clearly on all enquiries, packing instructions, Bookings and CAPs; and
 - (iv) The Services associated with Pesticide Residue Free Grain and Pesticide Residue Restricted Grain cover only GrainCorp Storage selection, samples and testing, noting that results are usually only available after Outload.

7. GRAIN CLASSIFICATION

How is Grain classified?

- (a) Grain is classified on Receival in accordance with the applicable Commodity Standard.

Can GrainCorp reclassify Stored Grain?

- (b) Yes. If, in GrainCorp’s discretion, it determines a quantity of Stored Grain has fallen outside its Grade, reclassification may occur and in doing so becomes Reclassified Grain.

Can GrainCorp reclassify malt barley?

- (c) Yes. GrainCorp will reclassify Your malt barley to ‘feed’ where the germinative energy is determined by GrainCorp to be less than 95% or it remains Stored Grain on or after 1 June of the Next Season.

Where malt barley becomes Reclassified Grain, is an adjustment made to Your Accounting Stock?

- (d) Yes. Where reclassification of Stored Grain comprising malt barley occurs, Your Accounting Stock will be proportionately adjusted to ‘feed’.
- (e) For the avoidance of doubt, clause 7(f) does not apply to reclassification under 7(d).

What if You have a Claim for Reclassified Grain?

- (f) Subject to clause 7(g), GrainCorp will only indemnify You for Reclassified Grain in accordance with the Reclassified Grain Indemnity Formula and subject to the Minimum Tonnage Threshold.

What are the limitations on any Claim relating to Reclassified Grain?

- (g) GrainCorp is not liable to You or any third party for any Claims or Loss including in relation to any alleged or actual reduction in quality of Stored Grain the subject of an Order to Outload where:
 - (i) The reduction in quality would not have resulted in the said Stored Grain becoming Reclassified Grain;
 - (ii) GrainCorp complied with the applicable Commodity Standard on Receival and Outload;
 - (iii) You requested GrainCorp to blend two or more Grades into one Grade and the blended Grade is at least the same quality of the lower of the two Grades blended;
 - (iv) An Order to Outload is within 0.3% of the minimum protein and maximum moisture, 1% of the maximum screenings and/or 2kg/Hl test weight of the relevant Commodity Standard on up to two (2) road trucks on any one (1) Business Day at each GrainCorp Storage;

- (v) You provided inaccurate or no details of the Outload destination; or
- (vi) The quantity of Reclassified Grain is less than the Minimum Tonnage Threshold.
- (vii) Where the quality of a loaded train, averaged across all wagons of a train, would not have resulted in the said Stored Grain becoming Reclassified Grain.
- (viii) The average presence of GM material in non-genetically modified Grades is below the Low Level Presence threshold prescribed by the applicable Commodity Standard for all loads from GrainCorp Storages.
- (ix) The Stored Grain is of a higher grade based on the Grade cascade in the Commodity Standard.

8. OUT OF SPECIFICATION GRAIN

What is the purpose of this clause?

- (a) The purpose of this clause 8 is to put in place a process whereby GrainCorp fully and finally determines Your Claim or Loss for Out of Specification Grain (domestic or export) (“Disputed Grain”).

What information must You provide?

- (b) In order to lodge a compliant Disputed Grain Notification, You must supply GrainCorp Supply Chain Planning with the following information:
 - (i) Booking ID number;
 - (ii) Vehicle registration number(s);
 - (iii) Your contact details (or agent’s); and
 - (iv) Particulars of the Disputed Grain in dispute, i.e., for example, protein levels, Contamination, Infestations etc.
- (c) For the avoidance of doubt a Disputed Grain Notification cannot comprise Disputed Grain which has been discharged from vehicle(s) or wagon(s).

What are Your obligations?

- (d) You must:
 - (i) Lodge a compliant Disputed Grain Notification;
 - (ii) Ensure the discharge/unloading of the Disputed Grain is immediately ceased until otherwise directed by GrainCorp Supply Chain Planning;

- (iii) Ensure any sampling and testing of Disputed Grain is documented and complies with the Sampling and Testing Methods;
 - (iv) Allow GrainCorp's nominated representative:
 - (A) Access to Your Disputed Grain and any equipment used for transporting, unloading, sampling and testing of Your Disputed Grain;
 - (B) To observe and inspect the sampling, testing and unloading processes associated with the Disputed Grain;
 - (C) Access to Your Samples, test results; and
 - (D) To re-test (whether by GrainCorp or, at its option, an Independent Laboratory) any and all of Your Samples, and, on GrainCorp's behalf, take separate samples of Your Disputed Grain; and
 - (v) Dispatch sample from disputed load to the nearest GrainCorp NATA Certified Laboratory.
 - (vi) Permit GrainCorp every opportunity to mitigate all actual or potential Claims or Loss associated with Your Disputed Grain Notification.
- (i) Taking ownership of the Disputed Grain and redirecting the same to an alternative destination via Your transport provider;
 - (ii) Crediting Your Accounting Stock accordingly;
 - (iii) Paying You by way of compensation the lesser of actual cost of freight and the cost determined by the GNC Swap Differentials calculated from the Outload Site to the destination as per the approved Order to Outload; and
 - (iv) Paying You by way of compensation, the Demurrage Cost.

How Do You replace Out of Specification Grain?

- (g) In the event GrainCorp determines Your Disputed Grain Notification under clause 8(f), and as a result You require replacement Grain, You must follow the processes under clause 3, 4 and 5 of Part B.

How will GrainCorp assess and finalise Your Disputed Grain Notification?

- (e) If, in GrainCorp's discretion, it determines:
 - (i) You did not comply with Your obligations under clauses 8(b) and 8(d) and that non-compliance prejudiced GrainCorp's ability to determine Your Disputed Grain Notification; or
 - (ii) The results of any testing under 8(d)(iv)(D) materially conform with Commodity Standard applied to the sample of Stored Grain on Outload, then such a determination will be final and conclusive and You acknowledge and agree that You release GrainCorp from any and all Claims or Loss directly or indirectly related to Your Disputed Grain and shall indemnify and keep indemnified, GrainCorp from any Claim or Loss directly or indirectly related to Your Disputed Grain made by a third party.

- (f) If, in GrainCorp's discretion, it determines Your Disputed Grain is Out of Specification, You acknowledge and agree that GrainCorp is entitled to fully and finally settle any Claim or Loss by:

1. BACKGROUND & COVERAGE

What are these terms about?

- (a) These terms contain the agreement between You and GrainCorp in respect of:
 - (i) Characterisation of Your interest;
 - (ii) Co-ownership of Grain;
 - (iii) Security Interests;
 - (iv) Accounting Stock Management;
 - (v) Stock Information;
 - (vi) Shrink;
 - (vii) Carry Over Accounting Stock;
 - (viii) Transfer of Title; and
 - (ix) Cash Buyer limits.

2. ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

What do You acknowledge and agree to?

- (a) You acknowledge and agree:
 - (i) Your Interest represents an ownership right to Stored Grain of the Grade that was classified on Receival and not the same physical Grain that was delivered;
 - (ii) GrainCorp may be a Co-Owner;
 - (iii) Where Your Accounting Stock at a GrainCorp Storage for a particular Commodity is between the values of -1 and +1 Tonnes, it will be deemed to have no value and GrainCorp shall have the right to remove such amounts from Your Accounting Stock;
 - (iv) GrainCorp, in its discretion, can remove and dispose of dust or waste Stored Grain from Accounting Stock;
 - (v) GrainCorp, in its discretion can Re-Grade the Stored Grain that is older than 2 years;
 - (vi) All third-party buyers of Stored Grain using CLEAR must be a party to this Agreement; and (vi) You are responsible for all Transfers of Title of Accounting Stock and liable for any inadvertent act or omission.

3. CO-OWNERSHIP

When does Grain become Stored Grain?

- (a) Grain becomes Stored Grain when the Receival Docket and weighbridge documentation notates the tare weight and the final net mass of the Grain at which time, Title in the Grain transfers from You to the Co-Owners and You become a Co-Owner of the Stored Grain.

How is Your Interest in Stored Grain held?

- (b) Each Co-Owner holds its Interest as a tenant in common in the Stored Grain.

What happens if GrainCorp becomes insolvent?

- (c) If GrainCorp becomes insolvent, each Co-Owner may assert its right of ownership commensurate to its Interest.

How can You deal with Your Interest?

- (d) Subject to clause 4 below, You may deal with Your Interest as follows:
 - (i) Transferring all or part of Your Interest to another Co-Owner; or
 - (ii) Requesting an Order to Outload; or
 - (iii) Transferring all or part of the Interest to a third party.

What happens on Outload?

- (e) On execution of an Order to Outload:
 - (i) The Grain no longer forms part of the Stored Grain and You become the full owner of that Grain and bear all risk in respect of it; and
 - (ii) Your Accounting Stock will be updated to reflect any remaining Interest held by You.

4. SECURITY INTERESTS

What are the implications of the PPSA?

- (a) The PPSA affects the way You may create and enforce Security Interests over Stored Grain.

What do You warrant to GrainCorp?

- (b) Subject to clause 3(d) above, You warrant to GrainCorp that:
 - (i) All Grain Transferred by You is Transferred free and will remain free of any Security Interest, other than a Permitted Security Interest;
 - (ii) You will not create, or consent to, any Security Interest over Stored Grain or Your Interest in Stored Grain other than a Permitted Security Interest;
 - (iii) If a Security Interest other than a Permitted Security Interest is created over Stored Grain or Your Interest in Stored Grain in breach of clause 4(b)(ii), You will ensure that it is promptly and unconditionally released; and

- (iv) You will not seek to enforce in any way a Security Interest over Stored Grain or Your Interest in Stored Grain, other than a Permitted Security Interest.

What if You breach clause 4(b) above?

- (c) You indemnify and will keep GrainCorp fully indemnified for any breach by You of clause 4(b).

Can You or a third party request a waiver?

- (d) Yes. If You or a third party request a waiver from the restriction on dealing with Accounting Stock as set out in this clause 4(d), then a request for waiver must be submitted in writing for GrainCorp’s consideration and approval. GrainCorp may elect or decline, in its sole discretion, to grant its approval to such request for waiver on terms as it thinks fit. GrainCorp may elect to request the party seeking a waiver to procure entry of a deed of priority with GrainCorp.
- (e) You agree to make amendments to any agreement, and to do such other things as GrainCorp may require from time to time to ensure that any Security Interest that GrainCorp has arising out of or in connection with this Agreement is perfected under the PPSA and to otherwise protect GrainCorp’s position under the PPSA as contemplated by this Agreement.

What is the order of priority for Fees and Costs?

- (f) Notwithstanding:
 - (i) The order in which:
 - (A) Any Security Interest that GrainCorp has arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, or a Permitted Security Interest is executed, created, lodged for registration, registered or perfected; or
 - (B) Anything else that occurs;
 - (ii) Anything contained in this Agreement or any agreement which creates a Permitted Security Interest;
 - (iii) The fluctuation from time to time of the monies secured by any Security Interest; or
 - (iv) Any rule of law or equity to the contrary or anything else,

You, as a party who has the benefit of a Permitted Security Interest under paragraph (a) of the definition of that term, agree and acknowledge that at all times, any Security Interest that GrainCorp has arising out of or in connection with this Agreement will have first priority over the Permitted Security

Interest for all Fees, Costs, interest and any other amounts owing between You and GrainCorp in respect of this Agreement.

What are the requirements where You have the benefit of a Permitted Security Interest?

- (g) If You have the benefit of a Permitted Security Interest You:
 - (i) Must, within five (5) Business Days of a request by GrainCorp, provide to GrainCorp any information GrainCorp requires in respect of the Permitted Security Interest; and
 - (ii) Agree to indemnify and keep GrainCorp fully indemnified for any payment of any Fees.

Does GrainCorp have legal or equitable title to the Stored Grain?

- (h) In respect of each Co-Owner, provided that the Co-Owner complies with all of its obligations under this Agreement, GrainCorp has possession of the Co-Owner’s Interest in the Stored Grain but no legal or equitable Title to any part of it, except to the extent that GrainCorp is a Co-Owner.

Can GrainCorp be a Co-Owner?

- (i) Yes. GrainCorp may become a Co-Owner by adding Grain to the Stored Grain.

How may GrainCorp deal with the Stored Grain?

- (j) In respect of each Co-Owner, provided that the Co-Owner complies with all its obligations under this Agreement, GrainCorp may only deal with Stored Grain as owner of its own Interest and not as the owner of the Interest of the Co-Owner. This applies in particular, to the Outload.

5. ACCOUNTING STOCK MANAGEMENT

What records must each party keep?

- (a) GrainCorp must keep proper, complete and current records relating the supply of the Services to You.
- (b) You must keep proper, complete and current records relating the supply of the Services to You (including copies of completed GrainCorp Transaction Documents) and must, on reasonable notice, make those records and documents available for inspection by GrainCorp.

What are Your obligations in respect of CropConnect?

- (c) You must regularly update and keep secure the password created by You to access CropConnect.

- (d) You must notify GrainCorp immediately if You believe or suspect unauthorised disclosure to a third party of Your password has occurred.
- (e) You must ensure GrainCorp is advised of all persons whom You no longer require or authorise to have access to CropConnect on Your behalf.
- (f) You agree that GrainCorp shall not be liable for any Claim or Loss incurred by You or any other person arising out of or in connection with acts or omission in breach of clauses 5(c), (d) or (e) above.

What can GrainCorp do in respect of the functionality of CropConnect?

- (g) On giving reasonable notice to You, GrainCorp may, add, remove, change or impose restrictions on the use and functionality of CropConnect.

Is GrainCorp responsible for any Claim or Loss arising because of CropConnect?

- (h) You acknowledge and agree that GrainCorp is not liable for any Claim or Loss made by You or any other person arising directly or indirectly because of:
 - (i) Any breakdown or interruption to the service that related to circumstances beyond GrainCorp's direct and immediate control; or
 - (ii) The buyer of Your Accounting Stock (or part thereof) failing to honour the Transfer or any term of any contractual agreement with You.

6. STOCK INFORMATION

Can You request Stock Information?

- (a) Yes, subject to (b) below, GrainCorp will use reasonable endeavours to provide Stock Information to You in a timely and accurate manner taking into account the systems and data retained in CropConnect.
- (b) You acknowledge and agree that Stock Information may be subject to update upon the availability of additional Stock Information that may affect Your Accounting Stock.

What must the parties do if there is an error in Stock Information?

- (c) If You are aware of any error or omission in any Stock Information, You must promptly notify GrainCorp;
- (d) If You know, or ought to know that GrainCorp's Accounting Stock or records or documents are incorrect, inaccurate or out of date, You must promptly notify GrainCorp and use reasonable endeavours to remedy the error.

What happens if an error is not discovered until after Outload?

- (e) If an error in Stock Information is not discovered until after Outload and You have received Grain in excess of Your Accounting Stock, You must either:
 - (i) Pay to GrainCorp an amount equal to the fair market value of the excess quantity of Grain at the date of Outload; or
 - (ii) Replace the Grain with Grain of the same variety and Grade and in the quantity exactly equal to the surplus volume provided in excess to Your Accounting Stock as, when and where so requested by GrainCorp.

7. SHRINK

What Shrink is applied to Your Accounting Stock?

- (a) GrainCorp will Shrink Your Accounting Stock at the following rates:
 - (i) 0.7% by weight from each load of wheat, durum, noodle and soft wheats, oats, all other cereals (excepting rice), sorghum, barley and canola Received at a GrainCorp Storage;
 - (ii) 0.2% by weight from each load of wheat, durum, noodle and soft wheats, oats, all other cereals (excepting rice), sorghum, barley and canola Received at a Port Terminal;
 - (iii) 1% by weight from each load of legumes, pulses, maize, sunflowers and oilseeds other than canola delivered to a country storage or a port terminal
 - (iv) An additional 1% Shrink will be deducted from all Tonnage of legumes and pulses in GrainCorp Storages at the commencement of the Next Season and at that date for each subsequent season until Outload; and
 - (v) Other Grain not listed above shall be Shrunk at an agreed rate or handled on an 'all in all out' basis in GrainCorp's discretion.

What terms do You agree to relating to Shrink?

- (b) You acknowledge and agree:
 - (i) The Shrink deduction applies to Transfers from Grower Warehousing Services and road and rail Receiveal from any Non-GrainCorp Storages, excluding 'site to site' Transfers or where throughput Services are provided, which are provided on an 'all in, all out' basis;
 - (ii) Accounting Stock which has been transferred to You from another Customer (Buyer to Buyer Transfer) is excluded as Shrink will have already been applied to that Stored Grain;

- (iii) The application of Shrink at Port Terminals will be determined in accordance with any applicable Bulk Wheat and Non-Wheat Port Terminal Services Agreement between You and GrainCorp;
- (iv) Where Shrink is deducted under clause 7(a), Title in the residue (being a volume of Grain representing the amount deducted) will Transfer to GrainCorp and any proceeds from the sale of Shrink residue, dust and/or damaged Grain will be to the account of GrainCorp and will not be considered for Outload on Your behalf. For the purposes of clarity, the residue does not Transfer to Co-Owners; and
- (v) The deductions set out in clause 7(b)(i) will be applied such that the quantity of Grain available to the Customer on Outload or Transfer as recorded in CropConnect which will be the Shrunk quantity. The Shrunk quantity is Your Interest.

8. CARRY OVER ACCOUNTING STOCK

What terms apply for carry over Accounting Stock?

- (a) In respect of Your Accounting Stock (other than malt barley) carried over from the Current Season to the Next Season:
 - (i) In GrainCorp’s discretion, it may continue to store Your Accounting Stock either at the Origination Site or relocate Your Interest to an alternate GrainCorp Storage; and
 - (ii) GrainCorp shall issue to You an invoice for all accrued Fees during the Term for the Current Season on the Termination Date that relate to carry over Accounting Stock.
 - (iii) GrainCorp shall issue to You a monthly invoice for any Fees that relate to Old Season Accounting Stock.

- (b) In respect of Accounting Stock that is malt barley, Part C; clauses 7(c) and 7(d) apply.

9. TRANSFER OF TITLE

What are Your Obligations regarding Transfer?

- (a) A Transfer of all or part of Your Accounting Stock to another Customer must be in accordance with this clause 9.

What process applies for Transfer?

(b) To Transfer Your Accounting Stock (being all or part of Your Interest):

- (i) You must complete and execute a ‘Buyer to Buyer Title Transfer’ in CropConnect and comply with the specified procedures in the GrainCorp Transaction Document headed “Guide for Buyers” and in this regard:
 - (A) Title will Transfer when You “confirm” the transaction within CropConnect; and
 - (B) The Transfer or Stock Swap is effective on the date on which the seller “confirms” the Transfer in CropConnect; or
- (ii) You must complete a ‘Buyer to Buyer Title Transfer’ form or ‘Stock Swap’ form and follow the specified procedures and in this regard:
 - (A) The Transfer or Stock Swap is effective, after execution by all parties on the date which the seller confirms the Transfer to GrainCorp in writing; and
 - (B) CropConnect will be updated manually to reflect the revised Interests of You and the third party.
- (iii) You must ensure that Your Accounting Stock placed on offer in CLEAR is Uncommitted at both the time of offer and request for Transfer should it be subject to an acceptable bid; and
- (iii) In the event that Your Uncommitted Accounting Stock is insufficient at the time of offer or the Title Transfer, it will be rejected by GrainCorp and the Transfer will not be completed.

What happens when Accounting Stock is Transferred to You (as buyer) using CropConnect?

- (c) If Accounting Stock is Transferred to You (as buyer) from another Customer or Grower (as seller) using CropConnect:
 - (i) If You reject all or a part of the Accounting Stock that is Transferred by the seller, You must notify GrainCorp Stocks and ensure that the Accounting Stock is transferred back to the seller within two (2) Business Days of the original Transfer. A failure to do so is deemed an acceptance of the Transfer; and
 - (ii) You acknowledge that the Execution Site of the Accounting Stock Transfer accepted from the seller may differ from that agreed in the Transfer

Can GrainCorp reverse a Transfer?

- (d) Yes. GrainCorp can reverse a Transfer if:
- (i) You have selected a buyer who is not a Customer;
 - (ii) You are in default of payment terms for Fees that are not the subject of a genuine dispute or You are in breach of any term of this Agreement;
 - (iii) You, for any reason, Transfer more than Your Accounting Stock as recorded in CropConnect at the time of the Transfer; or
 - (iv) In GrainCorp's discretion, the security of the Customer/You has been breached.
 - (v) You and the relevant buyer issue a written request to GrainCorp to reverse a Transfer and GrainCorp, in its discretion, agrees to reverse the Transfer .

- (ii) New prices from You are approved;
- (iii) Your Cash Buyer Limit is reached; or

Can GrainCorp provide a copy of Your daily price file to CLEAR?

- (g) Yes. GrainCorp may, with Your written consent, provide a copy of Your daily price file to CLEAR.

10. CASH BUYER LIMIT

Is GrainCorp obliged to provide the Cash Price service?

- (a) No. Subject to clause 9(b) above, GrainCorp is not obliged to provide the Cash Price service, unless and until You have established valid cash buyer limits within CropConnect (available in the buyer's guide section at www.cropconnect.com.au).

Are Cash Buyer limits guaranteed?

- (b) No. You acknowledge and agree that because all cash buyer limits are set by You, GrainCorp cannot guarantee strict observance to the Cash Buyer Limits. GrainCorp will use reasonable endeavours to adhere to the Cash Buyer Limits.

When do the Cash Prices become inactive?

- (c) Upon Your Cash Buyer Limit being reached, the Cash Prices will become inactive on CropConnect until such time as new Cash Buyer Limit is established.

Will GrainCorp display Cash Prices and Pool Prices?

- (d) Yes, subject to clause 10(f) below, GrainCorp will display Your Cash Price and/or Pool Price for the Receipt of Grain at GrainCorp Storages and from Grower Warehousing Services per the Buyers Guide.

When can You submit and activate new Cash Prices?

- (e) You may at any time submit new Cash Prices which will be effective the hour immediately after submission (provided that they are for the same calendar date) and will continue to be active until:
- (i) The effective date expires;

1. BACKGROUND & COVERAGE

What requirements must You meet?

- (a) In GrainCorp's discretion, You are required to make payment in respect of Fees or other amounts owing under this Agreement in one of the following ways:
 - (i) Pursuant to GrainCorp's approved terms of credit in which case GrainCorp may require You to provide Security during the Term. In this regard, You agree that GrainCorp, in its discretion, may from time to time:
 - (A) Apply some or all of the Security to Fees or other amounts owing by You to GrainCorp without your consent; and
 - (B) Request the Security be reduced or increased;
 - (ii) In advance of the Services, in which case GrainCorp will provide notification of the amount payable by You before providing the Services;
 - (iii) In accordance with the terms of payment on the Tax Invoice issued under this Agreement, or absent such terms, clause 3(e) and (f) below; and/or

- (iv) On demand, in the event of a breach of any term of this Agreement.

What do You agree to pay?

- (b) Subject to 4(c) below, You agree to pay:
 - (i) All Fees; and
 - (ii) Any other amounts owing under this Agreement, or any Other GrainCorp Agreement
- (c) You agree that all amounts payable by You are without set-off or counterclaim.

How will you be invoiced?

- (d) You will be issued with a Tax Invoice each Month, unless otherwise agreed or provided for in this Agreement.

When do You have to pay the Fees?

- (e) Fees are payable within twenty one (21) Calendar Days of the date of the Tax Invoice.
- (f) Notwithstanding the above, GrainCorp may, in its discretion, invoice You and request payment in full for any related Services prior to Outload.

What if there is an adjustment to the Fees?

- (g) GrainCorp reserves the right to make an adjustment for any error in the calculation of the Fees and will issue an adjustment note which You must pay in accordance with its terms.

4. GST

What happens if GST is payable?

- (a) If GST applies to any supply, GrainCorp will, in addition to the Fees or any other amount payable and subject to issuing a valid tax invoice, recover from You an additional amount on account of GST.

How is GST calculated?

- (b) If GST applies to any supply, it will be calculated by multiplying the fee, or any other amount or consideration payable by You, by the prevailing GST rate.

What if the GST amount needs to be adjusted?

- (c) If GrainCorp determines the amount of GST paid or payable on any supply differs for any reason from the amount of GST recovered from You, including by reason of:
 - (i) An alteration in the law in respect of GST;
 - (ii) The issue of or an alteration in a ruling or advice of the Commissioner of Taxation;

- (iii) The allowance to You of a refund of GST in respect of any supply; or
- (iv) A decision of the Administrative Appeals Tribunal or a Court, the amount of GST recovered or recoverable from You will be adjusted accordingly.

5. LIENS, SECURITY INTERESTS & AMOUNTS OWING

What happens in the event of Your default?

- (a) In addition to its rights at law, and/or under any statute of the Commonwealth, a State or a Territory, if You default and fail to pay Fees or any other amount owing to GrainCorp in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, GrainCorp may in its discretion:
 - (i) Demand immediate payment;
 - (ii) Set off in accordance with clause 5(c);
 - (iii) Amend or withdraw Your terms of credit;
 - (iv) Withhold or suspend the Services to You under this Agreement or Other GrainCorp Agreements;
 - (v) Charge interest in accordance with clause 5(b);
 - (vi) Draw on Your Security;
 - (vii) Exercise any right, power or remedy it has in relation to any lien GrainCorp has over Your Grain, including, without limitation, its rights under clause 5(d)(iv) of Part E;
 - (viii) Enforce any Security Interest arising out of or in connection with this Agreement or exercise any right, power or remedy it has in relation to such Security Interests;
 - (ix) Terminate this Agreement;
 - (x) Commence court proceedings; and/or
 - (xi) Rely on the indemnity given by You in clause 6(a)(vi) of Part A.

What is the default rate of interest?

- (b) If You default and fail to pay Fees or any other amount owing to GrainCorp You will be liable to pay default interest, calculated daily at a rate of 12% per annum on the outstanding amount, from the date it was due until the date on which payment is made.

Can GrainCorp set off amounts due and payable?

- (c) Yes. GrainCorp may apply any amounts whatsoever then due and payable by it to You in satisfaction of any amounts (including interest) whatsoever due and payable by You or any of your Related Entities to GrainCorp or any of its Related Entities under this Agreement or for any other reason.

What is the lien held by GrainCorp?

- (d) Without limiting any other term of this Agreement, or GrainCorp’s rights at law and/or under any statute of the Commonwealth, a State or a Territory, You acknowledge and agree:

- (i) This clause 5 applies irrespective of the capacity in which You owe any amount to GrainCorp, whether or not You are liable as principal or surety and whether or not You are liable alone, jointly, or jointly and severally;
- (ii) GrainCorp will have a contractual right of lien and/or a right of set off over Your Interest in Stored Grain for all amounts due and payable to GrainCorp by You or any of Your Related Entities or any of its Related Entities under this Agreement or for any other reason;
- (iii) GrainCorp’s rights described in clause (d)(ii) above are in addition to, and do not exclude or limit, any other rights or remedies provided to GrainCorp by law and/or under any statute of the Commonwealth, a State or a Territory, including, without limitation, any rights and remedies that GrainCorp may have under the PPSA and in connection with any warehouseman’s lien or storer’s lien arising under the Storage Liens Act 1935 (NSW), the Storage Liens Act 1973 (Qld), the Warehousemen’s Liens Act 1958 (Vic) and any other similar or equivalent legislation and/or regulations.

- (iv) If any amount is owing by You or any of Your Related Entities to GrainCorp or any of its Related Entities for any reason and on any account whatsoever, GrainCorp in its discretion may:

- (A) Suspend Your entitlement to the Services;
- (B) Calculate the total amount outstanding to GrainCorp and/or its Related Bodies Corporate, including all Fees, Costs, interest and other amounts;
- (C) Identify by Grade, quantity and/or location, a portion of Your Accounting Stock using fair market value that is commensurate with the sum of Fees, Costs, interest and other amounts owing to GrainCorp, and do any of the following:

- i. Hold that portion of Your Accounting Stock; and/or
- ii. Transfer that portion or any part thereof of that Accounting Stock to itself in satisfaction of the sum of Fees, Costs, interest and other amounts owing to GrainCorp (or a portion thereof); and/or
- iii. Be at liberty to sell that portion of Accounting Stock and:
 1. Apply any proceeds of sale to the total sum owing; and
 2. If applicable, return any surplus fund to You.

What is the Security Interest held by GrainCorp?

- (e) Without limiting any other term of this Agreement, or GrainCorp's rights at law and/or any statute of the Commonwealth, a State or a Territory, You acknowledge and agree:
- (i) this Agreement constitutes a security agreement under and for the purposes of the PPSA that gives rise to one or more Security Interests in Your Interest in Stored Grain and the proceeds of such Stored Grain (including but not limited to proceeds from any dealing with Your Stored Grain);
 - (ii) Your Stored Grain is collateral that is security for Your obligations under this Agreement which is registrable on the PPSR under the PPSA;
 - (ii) You acknowledge that GrainCorp may in its sole discretion perfect any Security Interest arising under or in connection with this Agreement by possession of Your Stored Grain and/or by effecting any registration on the PPSR (in any manner that GrainCorp deems appropriate) from time to time and You agree that any failure to register a financing statement in respect of its Security Interests does not affect or impair GrainCorp's Security Interests provided GrainCorp has possession of Your Stored Grain;
 - (iv) You consent to GrainCorp effecting registrations on the PPSR (in any manner that GrainCorp deems appropriate) to perfect any Security Interests in Your Stored Grain and the proceeds of such Stored Grain arising under or in connection with this Agreement;

- (v) You agree to promptly execute any documents, provide all relevant information, fully cooperate with GrainCorp and do any other act or thing that GrainCorp requires to ensure that any Security Interest created under this Agreement is perfected and remains continuously perfected, has priority over any other Security Interests in Your Grain and any defect in the security interest, including its registration, is overcome;
- (vi) You must not, without providing prior written notice to GrainCorp, change Your name, address, contact details or any other details that would cause any details in a financing statement to be different if a Security Interest was re-registered;
- (vii) To the extent the law permits:
 - (A) for the purposes of sections 115(1) and 115(7) of the PPSA:
 - i. GrainCorp need not comply with sections 95, 118, 121(4), 125, 130, 132(3)(d) or 132(4) of the PPSA; and
 - ii. sections 142 and 143 of the PPSA are excluded;
 - (B) for the purposes of section 115(7) of the PPSA, GrainCorp need not comply with sections 132 and 137(3);
 - (C) You waive your rights to receive from GrainCorp any notice required under the PPSA (including a notice of a verification statement); and
 - (D) if GrainCorp exercises a right, power or remedy in connection with its Security Interests, that exercise is taken not to be an exercise of a right, power or remedy under the PPSA unless GrainCorp states otherwise at the time of exercise. However, this clause 5(e)(vii)(D) does not apply to a right, power or remedy which can only be exercised under the PPSA, provided that this clause 5(e)(vii) does not affect any rights a person has or would have other than by reason of the PPSA and applies despite any other clause in this Agreement;

- (viii) The parties must not disclose information of the kind mentioned in section 275(1) of the PPSA, except in the circumstances required by sections 275(7)(b) to (e) of the PPSA. You must notify GrainCorp before authorising the disclosure of information under section 275(7)(c) of the PPSA or requesting information under section 275(7)(d) of the PPSA. Nothing in this clause prevents any disclosure by You or GrainCorp that it believes is necessary to comply with its other obligations under the PPSA; and
- (ix) In this clause 5 the following words have the respective meanings given to them in the PPSA: collateral, financing statement, perfected, possession, proceeds, register, registration, security agreement and verification statement.
